

Resolution 13-03

of the Nevada Association of Counties

A RESOLUTION COMMENDING DOUGLAS COUNTY FOR HOSTING THE 2013 NACO ANNUAL CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, NACO holds an annual conference to provide its members with an opportunity to receive training and information on relevant issues, as well as to network with county officials, and private sector partners, from across Nevada; and

WHEREAS, 2013 was the first joint conference with the Nevada League of Cities and Municipalities in 10 years and had as its theme "Building the Legacy of Local Government;" and

WHEREAS, nearly 300 people attended the 2013 Annual Conference, making it one of the most popular NACO events ever; and

WHEREAS, the natural beauty of Lake Tahoe provided a superb setting for this historic gathering of local government officials from across Nevada; and

WHEREAS, the 2013 Annual Conference provided an outstanding educational and social experience, and demonstrated the commitment of Douglas County to furthering the goals of NACO; and

WHEREAS, the support and hospitality of Douglas County and their collaboration with co-hosts, the Town of Gardnerville, Gardnerville Ranchos General Improvement District, and Indian Hills General Improvement District, added greatly to the overall success of the Conference; and

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the NACO Board of Directors, on behalf of all Nevada counties, commends Douglas County for hosting a truly outstanding Annual Conference; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the NACO Board of Directors expresses its great appreciation to the Commissioners and staff of Douglas County for their dedication and efforts on behalf of our entire membership.

PASSED, APPROVED AND ADOPTED this 15th day of November, 2013 by the Board of Directors of the Nevada Association of Counties:
