

2020 NACO Annual Conference Educational Sessions

The Changed & Changing Landscape of Public Lands Management: A detailed discussion on changes to key natural resources regulations including the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA), the Endangered Species Act (ESA), and the implementation of a suite of broad-scale management tools.

Newly Elected County Officials Training - NACO's Committee of the Emeritus: Former and long serving county commissioners and other experts give advice on best practices, how to handle tough situations and making the most of your time as an elected and/or appointed county official.

Key Note Speakers:

D.C. Insider's Prospective - National Association of Counties (NACO) Executive Director, Matt Chase

Dealing With Crisis - Nevada's Ability to Restart & Rebuild - Guy Hobbs, Managing Member of Hobbs, Ong and Associates

Delivering Services in the Time of COVID - How the County World Has Changed: A discussion on how counties are supporting kids through additional recreation and childcare programs; how district courts have adjusted operations to safely provide access to justice; how communications have changed to effectively provide information to the public during a time of increased online information and misinformation; and providing services to the most vulnerable as needs and delivery systems change.

Clark County Initiatives and Programming to Address COVID-19 Impacts Across Human Services - Kevin Schiller, Clark County Assistant Manager

Churchill County CARE Program - Churchill County Commissioner, Pete Olsen

County Services in the Time of COVID - Courts - Assistant District Court Administrator, 2nd Judicial District Court, Alicia Lerud